Time Finance plc
("Time Finance", the "Group" or the "Company")

Directorate Changes

Time Finance plc, the AIM listed independent specialist finance provider, is pleased to announce the appointment of Edward Rimmer as Interim Chief Executive Officer and as a director of the Company with immediate effect.

The Company announced on 6 January 2021 that Ian Smith was to step down from the role of CEO of the Group and it is anticipated that Ian will leave the Company and step down as a director of Time Finance not later than 26 February 2021. Ian will work until that date with Ed to complete an orderly handover of duties and regulatory responsibilities.

Ed has worked within commercial finance for over 20 years and was previously Time Finance's Chief Operating Officer until April 2020 having joined the Group in 2017 as Managing Director of the newly established Commercial Finance Division comprising the acquired businesses of Gener8 Finance and Positive Cashflow Finance.

Prior to joining the Group, Ed was previously UK CEO and main board director of Bibby Financial Services Limited from 2007 to 2012, having joined the Bibby Financial Services Group in 1995 as a graduate trainee.

Ed's appointment as a director of certain of the Company's subsidiaries remains subject to certain regulatory approvals.

John Newman, Non-Executive Chairman of Time Finance, commented:

"I am pleased that we have secured the services of Ed Rimmer as Interim CEO of the Group. Ed has extensive experience within the financial services sector and his specific knowledge of the Group from his time with us as Group COO will enable him to take up the CEO responsibilities quickly and effectively."

"On behalf of the Board I wish to record our sincere thanks and appreciation for the leadership and guidance that Ian Smith has given to the Group as CEO and he leaves with our best wishes for the future."
